AWARD

The Government of Goa, Daman & Diu, by its Order No. 28/31/81-ILD dated 3rd June, 1982, has referred for the adjudication by this Tribunal of an industrial dispute between the above parties. The schedule attached to the Order of Reference reads as follows:

"Whether the following demands of the workman of M/s. Bhawani Saw Mill, Margao represented by Goa. Shops and Industrial Workers' Union, Margao, to be effective from 1-1-1980, is justified?

If so, what relief the workmen are entitled to under separate Heads of Demands:

1. Classification:

The employees should be classified in the following categories:

- (a) Skilled
- (b) Semi-skilled
- (c) Unskilled

2. Pay Scale & Fitment:

Each employee according to this category should be fitted in the following pay scale taking into consideration the years of service put in by him.

- i) Skilled 401-25-575-30-725
- ii) Semi-skilled 375-20-475-25-600
- iii) Unskilled 250-15-325-20-425

S. Earned Leave:

The workman should be allowed, on completion of continuous service of 240 days, to annual leave with pay at the rate of 30 days for every completed year of service to be accumulated upto 180 days.

All the workmen should be granted paid National Holidays and all the Industrial Holidays as declared by the Government of Goa, Daman and Diu from time to time for observance by the Industrial Workman.

5. Medical Expenditure:

All the workmen should be allowed reimbursement of medical expenses to the extent of Rs. 250/- per

- 2. In its statement of claim, the Union tries to justify the various demands made in its charter submitted to the employer, which demands are referred to above in the sche-dule to the order of reference.
- 3. The employer, in its written statement, has denied that the Union is entitled to get the said demands and submitted that the demands made are extravagant, un-realistic and completely overlook the size, quantum and nature of work done by the workman and the financial capacity of the employer to meet the said demands or part thereof. It is further stated that, infact, the prevalent rates of wages, earned leave and other benefits like paid holidays granted by the employer are more favourable than those followed by other establishments of the same or similar industry.
  - 4. Following issues were framed by the Tribunal:

"Besides the Issues involved in the Order of Reference, the following additional issue is hereby framed:

Whether the employer proves that this reference is not maintainable as the Union has no locus standi to sponsor the dispute of the workmen?

- 5. After evidence of the employer had started, both the parties approached the Court with an application stating that the matter has been amicably settled between them and so the Union does not press any of the demands set out in the Charter and pray that a consent award be passed on the basis of the said settlement.
- 6. Since the parties have settled the matter amicably between them and the Union does not press any of the demands made in the Charter which is subject matter of this reference, the reference to be treated as disposed off accordingly. No order as to costs.

AWARD

The Government of Goa, Daman and Diu, by its Order No. 38/23/83-ILD dated April 24, 1984, has referred for the adjudication of this Tribunal of an industrial dispute between the above parties. The schedule annexed to the Order of reference reads as follows:

"Whether the action of the employer, M/s, V. N. S. Engineering and Service Company, Margao, Salcete-Goa, in terminating the services of Shri P. S. Gurav, Sales Assistant w.e.f. 22-1-1983 is legal and justified?

If not, to what relief the said workman is entitled to?"

- 2. Workman's case, as per his statement of claim, is that he was employed by the firm M/s. V. N. S. Engineering & Services Company, Margao Goa, from 1-6-1982 by appointment order dated 31-5-1982. The terms of employment, as per the appointment order, contained inter-alia the following clauses:
  - a) Clause No. 1: The initial period of probation will be six months but the management reserves the right to extend this period, if found necessary. If, at the end of the period of probation, you are found suitable, your appointment will be confirmed by us in writing.
  - b) Clause No. 2: During the probationary period, if your work, attendance, and conduct are not found satisfactory, your services are liable to be terminated without giving you any notice or pay in lieu thereof, or without assigning any reasons thereto.
  - c) Clause No. 5: After completion of your probationary period or earlier, if your work, attendance, conduct and medical report are found satisfactory, your appointment will be confirmed in writing and you will be placed in a suitable grade.
  - (d) Clause No. 6: No leave of any kind is permissible during the period of probation. Only after confirmation in service of the company, you will be entitled for leave in accordance with and subject to the Company's leave rules in force from time to time.
  - e) After confirmation, either party to this employment may terminate it by giving one month's notice in writing to the other.

The workman was initially employed in M/s. Aaren Sales and Services as a Sales Representative-cum-Store Keeper, w.e.f. 18-5-1981, Shri M. V. Nevrenkar, Sr. Partner of M/s. V. N. S. Engineering Services Company, being the Mg. Trustee of M/s. Aaren Sales & Services. While the workman was employed on the roll of M/s. Aaren Sales and Services, Mr. Nevrenkar, Mg. Trustee of the firm called the workman in his cabin on 31-5-1982 and informed him that he is closing down the operation of M/s. Aaren Sales and Services and that the workman should voluntarily resign from the firm so that he could join M/s. V. N. S. Engineering and Service, which suggestion the workman agreed, since he was not entitled to claim compensation from the employer due to short term of his services in the said Aaren Sales and Services. Accordingly, the workman tendered his resignation.

Ever since he joined the organisation he was performing his duties to the full satisfaction of the Mahagement and, in view of his dedicated services to the firm, the Management waived the stipulated probation period of 6 months as per clause 1 of the letter of appointment and the services of the workman were confirmed by the Management by their letter dated 22-9-1982.

Right from the date of his appointment till his illegal termination of his services, he was working very hard and at a time for more than 10 to 12 hours a day without any payment of over time or any other extra monetary benefits or compensation for the extra hours of services rendered by him. He had to work also on Sundays and holidays when there was urgent work and also attended to service staff to supply spares etc. at outdoor places in Goa and outside Goa.

Inspite of this exploitation by the employer, the workman being freshly appointed in the said firm was placed in a very delicate situation always under a threat of termination or dismissal in the event he had even grumbled about the exploitation by the firm. Clause 5 of the letter of appointments stated that: "After completion of your probationary period or earlier, if your work, attendance, conduct and medical report are found satisfactory, your appointment will be confirmed in writing and you will be placed in a suitable grade. The employer, however, although confirmed the services of the workman in writing as far back as 22-9-1982 did not grant him any grade or pay scale either at the time of his confirmation or any day thereafter till his termination thus violating the terms of employment governing his service conditions.

The workman further submits that, some where in the third week of June 1982, Mr. Nevrenkar Sr. Partner of the firm conveyed to all the staff orally that w.ef. 26-6-1982 he was withdrawing the long enjoyed facility of Saturday half day and that henceforth the staff would be required to work full day on Saturday. This was another form of exploitation of the staff, which amounts to change in service condition of employees and violation of Section 9A of the Act. On 22-1-1983, when the workman had been to Shri M. V. Nevrenkar, casually inquired with him about the pay grade. Mr. Nevrenkar got very wild and told the workman that his services are not wanted and he is terminated with effect from the close of office hours on that very day. The workman remained quiet and came out of the cabin of the employer. At the end of that day, when the workman was about to leave the office, he was issued a letter of termination letter is: "The Management was not happy with the work of workman". It is submitted that the said allegation made by the Management against the workman amounts to misconduct and ought to have been proved by the Management before terminating the services of the workman, after giving reasonable opportunity to the workman to defend himself from the said charge. It is also submitted that, during the period of his employment in the firm i.e. from 1-6-1982 till 22-1-1983 the Management had at no time made any allegations or charges against him about his unsatisfactory work, nor the workman was at any time issued any letter, memo or any other communication about the so called unsatisfactory work. The Management had confirmed the services were dedicated services and this prevailed upon the Management to confirm him within 4 months only, though originally the workman was to be under probation of 6 months, as per the letter of appointment. The employer's establishment is also covered under Goa, Daman & Diu Shops and Establishments Act 1973. The employer, however, while terminating the services of the workman has not co

3. The employer, in its written statement, has denied, in general, the allegations made by the workman in his statement of claim and specially alleged that confirmation letter dated 22-9-1982 issued to the workman was not because the workman was performing his duties to the full satisfaction of the employer, as contended by him, but on the advice and recommendation of the immediate superiors of the workman. The said confirmation was done without exercising the right of the employer company to adjudge the overall suitability of the workman in the post held. When it was subsequently found by the Management that, having regard to the knowledge of work, co-operation, initiative and potentiality of the workman, he was not fit or suitable for the post in which he was appointed, the employer company decided to terminate his services. Such termination was bonafide and without affecting the prospects of the workman in any other employment.

Regarding recovery of Rs. 254-10 for 17 and half days of absence, it is submitted that the recovery pertains to excess payment made to the workman till December 1983 and is not an act of vindictive nature, as alleged by the workman.

4. No other issues were framed besides those involved in the order of reference.

The employer did not file any list of evidence, but the workman filed his list. On the date fixed for evidence, the employer's rep. prayed for adjournment, on the ground that his witness was in Poona. As the other party did not object, case was adjourned for a fresh date. On this date too, the employer's rep. moved another application for adjournment which was objected to by the other party. The objection was upheld by the Court and the application dismissed and the evidence of the employer was declared closed.

The workman's rep., on his side, did not want to lead any evidence and the matter was kept for arguments which both the parties have filed in writing.

- 5. In terms of the order of reference, it was for the employer to prove that the termination of the services of the workman was legal and justified. The employer, however, fid not lead any evidence to discharge this burden. On the other side, from the statement of claim of the workman, read with Exhs. 'A' to 'F' filed alongwith it, the correctness of which has not been specifically denied by the employer in its written statement, the following facts are to be considered as admitted by the parties:
  - i) That, by letter dated 31-5-1982, signed by Shri R. V. Sarmalkar, Partner of the employer, the workman, after interview, was offered the employment as Sales Assistant in the establishment of the employer on terms and conditions as mentioned in the said letter (Exh 'A' of the workman), of which the following clauses are hereby reproduced since they are relevant for our purpose:
    - "1. The initial period of probation will be six months but the Management reserves the right to extend this period, if found necessary. If, at the end of the period of probation, you are found suitable, your appointment will be confirmed by us in writing.
    - 2. During the probationary period, if your work, attendance and conduct are not found satisfactory, your services are liable to be terminated without giving you any notice or pay in lieu thereof, or without assigning any reasons thereto.
    - 5. After completion of your probationary period or earlier if your work, attendance, conduct and medical report are found satisfactory, your appointment will be confirmed in writing and you will be placed in a suitable grade.
    - 6. No leave of any kind is permissible during the period of probation. Only after confirmation in service of the Company, you will be entitled for leave in accordance with subject to the Company's leave rules in force from time to time.
    - 8. After confirmation, either party to this employment may terminate it by giving one month's notice in writing to the other."
  - ii) By letter dated 22-9-1982 addressed to the workman and signed by the said partner Sarmalkar (Exh 'C' of the workman) the services of the workman were confirmed. The last two lines of this letter read as follows:
    - "We hope you will work with the same dedication as you have been working for the last four months."
  - iii) By letter dated 22-1-1983, addressed to the workman and signed by the Partner M. V. Nevrenkar (Exh. 'D' of the workman) the services of the workman were terminated w.e.f. the close of working hours on that very day 22nd and the workman was offered one month's pay in lieu of notice.
- 6. The allegation of the workman in para 16 of his statement of claim that, when he had been to Shri Nevrenkar and casually inquired with him about his pay grade, referred to in clause 5 of the letter of appointment after confirmation of his services, Mr. Nevrenkar "got very wild with the workman and told the workman that his services are not wanted and he is terminating his services w.e.f. the close of office hours on 22-1-1983" seems to be true. Otherwise, how to explain that the workman, who was confirmed in the post two months before his probation period was over due to his dedicated services, was not issued any charge sheet, memo or warning, after his confirmation of services till the date of his dismissal, was, all of a sudden, terminated on that very day and with payment of one month's salary in lieu of notice.
- 7. The allegation of the employer in para 11 of its written statement that, on expiry of the stipulated probationary period of 6 months, the workman was not found fit for further retention in the employment and, therefore, his services were terminated cannot be accepted. It is to be noted that the 6 month's probationary period of the workman was over on 20-11-1982 and the workman had continued in services till 22-1-1983 without any remark or warning from the employer and, all of a sudden, his services were terminated on 22-1-1983 with payment of notice pay in lieu of notice. Why such hurry in terminating the services of the workman? If the services of the workman were not satisfactory, as contended by the employer, how is that he continued in services even after the 6 months probationary period was over? Otherwise, such probationary period of 6 months would not be attracted in the workman's case, now that he was already confirmed in services after 4 months!

8. In the circumstances of the case, I am inclined to believe the workman's version that the amployer only because he was demanding a suitable grade after confirmation, as provided in his letter of appointment, got wild with him and, as a vindictive measure, terminated his services. Such termination, undoubtedly, is malafide, not justified and cannot be maintained. Hence, I pass the following order:

ORDER

The action of the employer in terminating the services of the workman Shri P. S. Gurav w.e.f. 22-1-1983 is illegal and not justified. I, therefore, direct his reinstatement with continuity of services and full back wages. Costs of Rs. 200/- to be paid by the employer to the workman.
